Commander's Report D/C Thomas E. Davidson, JN

Fran and I invite you to join us Tuesday 10 September for a Dinner Cruise aboard the Mary M. Miller Riverboat in Louisville, KY.

We also welcome you to attend the D/24 Fall Council and Conference at the Galt House Hotel on Wednesday 11 September 2019. D/24 has reserved a Hospitality suite at the Galt House Hotel during the America's Boating Club Conference held 8-15 September. At the summer rendezvous D24 voted to hold our Fall Conference during the week of the National meeting in order to take advantage of the hospitality suite, reduced hotel rate ($169) and wide range of activities available the entire week. The $50 fee for the D/24 conference includes a Luncheon cruise aboard Mary M. Miller on Wednesday. We are including a continental breakfast, beverage and snacks in the hospitality room in addition to the lunch cruise as part of the D/24 conference fee. Dinner is pay-on-your-own reserved seating at Patrick O'Shea's Restaurant at 6:00PM. Optional is a Tuesday Evening Dinner Cruise, 7pm - 9pm on the Mary M. Miller for $45 per person. Please join us for a great time in Louisville.

Fran and I enjoyed the D/24 summer rendezvous at Johnston Marina in Lawrenceburg. Thank goodness the Hollywood Casino and Hotel were air conditioned. We enjoyed the terrific Hollywood Casino Friday night seafood Buffet and the $24 per person discount Hollywood offered. The temperature Saturday reached 102 degrees which will most likely be recorded as the hottest day of the year. In spite of the heat we held our conference on the dock with plenty to eat and drink and with a slight breeze and canopy for some comfort. Thanks to Jim and Debbie Davis for hosting the Americas Boating Club party and congratulations to Jim Davis for achieving 50 years membership in United States Power Squadron (America's Boating Club).

A huge thank you to Martha and Bob Rothman for providing the continental breakfast and help throughout the weekend activities. Thanks also to those who brought a treat (nut bread) or drinks (little beers) to share.

We are excited to be hosting a D/24 hospitality suite at the Galt House from 9-15 Sept during the National Conference. We will have Woodford Reserve and Four Roses Bourbon available for D/24 attendees as well as serving shots at the Hospitality Suite open house on Friday evening. Louisville is an impressive city to visit. Within walking distance of the Galt House Hotel is the Louisville Slugger factory tour, the Mary M. Miller and Belle of Louisville Sternwheeler, Muhammad Ali Museum, Multiple Bourbon Trail Venues and a free shuttle to Churchill Downs Museum and track.

A short ride across the river is a steamboat museum, the Falls of Ohio fossil beds and the Falls of Ohio State Park interpretative Center. Plan on attending the full ABC Conference in addition to our D/24 Fall Conference. Continue your stay Thursday and earn a merit mark and a free D/24 polo shirt as a greeter for the ABC Conference. Contact Maureen Samuels to sign up and provide shirt size. Friday morning is the Guest Speaker Breakfast featuring Alan Bernstein owner of BB Riverboats. On Saturday attend the members luncheon or the Social luncheon with guest speaker Kadie Engstrom (Ohio Riverboat historian). Hope to see you there.

Tom and Fran
