Now that summer travels are over, many auxiliaries are preparing for fall and winter schedules of meetings. Besides the monthly membership meetings, the Fall District Conferences and Fall Governing Board are on the agenda. The committee members of the Auxiliary Advisory Committee wish to invite all officers and interested members to the open meetings being held at Adam's Mark hotel, Jacksonville, Florida, on 10 September and 11 September. The program for 11 September will be presented by P/D/C Marlene Herbig, SN, YOUTH ACTIVITIES, USPS STYLE. This promises to be of interest to all members.

Many auxiliaries have special projects that promote friendship and community service. Those areas of activity are very appreciated by the squadrons and districts that benefit from them. Teaching youth boating courses, helping at the general public safe boating courses, and Skipper Saver courses are special ways of supporting the squadrons and benefiting the communities we live in.

Within auxiliaries numerous special parties occur for recognition of member's special achievements and talents. Friendship luncheons, quilting parties, Tea parties and day trips promote the feelings of belonging that enhance one's life. Many auxiliaries support nursing homes, youth homes, and environmental projects within their communities. This encourages those people that are not familiar with USPS®.

D/23 Cocoa Beach PS Coco-nauts had a Lady's Tea Party in April which introduced the new members to the new officers. Many members are employed during the day and could not attend the installation of the new officers. The party was a huge success and was well attended. Among the new members was the daughter of the new President Barbara Milner, daughter, Linda Milner. USPS is a family organization.
