

UNITED STATES POWER SQUADRONS ®

MARINE ENVIRONMENT COMMITTEE

Supplemental Manual Update No. 1 for CP 03 August 2004

CP 03 Chapter 1: Cruise Preparation and Planning, Homework question 12, page 14

All reference to coins should be currency.

NOTE: This question will not appear on the exam.

CP 03 Chapter 2: Boat and Equipment, Homework question 2, page 53

Question 2 should read: A disadvantage of a folding propeller is:

NOTE: This question will not appear on the exam.

CP03 Chapter 2: Boat and Equipment, Homework question 7, page 53

Both answer a. offshore cruising, and d. grounding protection, can be considered correct.

NOTE: This question will not appear on the exam.

CP 03 Chapter 9: Signal Flags, page 149, paragraph 68

Infinity signs “∞” were substituted for “x” signs.

CP 03 Chapter 12: Emergencies, page 181, paragraph 22

Infinity sign “∞” was substituted for the “x” sign.

CP03 Table 12-2, page198

Mycitracin Antibiotic O, should read Mycitracin Antibiotic Ointment.

Fleet Disposable Enem, should read Fleet Disposable Enema.

Wire Cutters (fish hook r), should read, Wire Cutters (fish hook removal).

UPDATES are provided to keep the course material as current as possible. The national course chairman welcomes all comments and suggestions. This UPDATE includes submissions received by the Cruise Planning Committee from interested Cruise Planning instructors and students.

The Marine Environment Committee.