TEN HOURS UNTIL DAWN

The True Story of Heroism and Tragedy Aboard the Can Do

During the height of the Blizzard of 1978 the pilot boat CAN DO, with five men aboard, set out from Gloucester to assist a lost Coast Guard boat and an oil tanker that was in peril. This is the story of what happened on that awful night.

Using slides of the boats, the men involved and photos of the storm, author, Michael Tougias, will take us through this incredible night where many lives hung in the balance. With the aid of maps, Tougias lets the audience see the progression and location of these boats and explain what happened and why.

Ten Hours Until Dawn was recently awarded the American Library Association's "Editors Choice Selection". Tougias is the author of 17 books. More about the book and the author can be found on the web at www.michaeltougias.com.
