

BARE COVE POWER SQUADRON

Held at the 99 Restaurant, Hingham, MA

6:58. Cdr. Dick Eckhouse called the meeting to order. He requested four items from our membership. In order they are:

1. Get merit marks in
2. Next meeting. Bob Gibbs requester that we I invite everyone in the armed services to it. What he did not know was that this next meeting is for the Executive committee only. It will be held on Nov 11th.
3. Nominating committee be convened and consists of Ginny G., Frank C., Bob G., and George M. The first position they will need to fill is that of Commander.
4. Will Dawson had some ideas on teaching courses. We use to offer in order: Basic, seamanship, adv. piloting, and navigation course; electives were also to be taught.

Honored tonight was Dick Eckhouse who has finished the last course, thus becoming a Senior Navigator.

Dick introduced Tom Hall, who took us on an historical journey with the T.W. Lawson, the only seven masted ship to set sail.

Meeting adjourned at 9:06 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Virginia B. Gray
