LANOPS Day at the Races

Is Sissy counting her winnings...
Or trying to decide how much to bet on the next race?

Chester you'd better put those glasses
on before you bet! And thanks to Marlene for arranging Day
at the Races
for us.

Lori, we were sitting with you; we know you won more than that.
By the way - nice hat!

Don - Does that look on your face mean you lost?

Rose (Cheryl's Mother) and Robbie
Did you win or lose?

Buddy and Joe Ann looking pretty serious there.

On your mark, get set, start betting!

Dessert with Tracy and Dr John

Twenty-seven signed up, but 31 members from New Orleans Power Squadron and Baton Rouge Sail and Power Squadron showed up. And most of them went to Tracy Hamlin and Dr. John Harrington's house afterwards for dessert and liquid refreshments. Thanks to Tracy and her husband for opening their home up to the members. A great time was had by all.

Another Weekend at the Wall

Members of NOPS spent the first weekend in August at "The Wall" in Madisonville. Three boats cruised over - Critical Mass, with Captain Chris Lawler and crew Charles Chapman, Don Ellis and Chester Cooke; Island Time with Captain Pete and Jan Ingrassia; and The Other Line with Captain Buddy and Joe Ann Ward.

Pics from the Crab Boil

Thirty-seven members and guests of New Orleans Power Squadron enjoyed a wonderful day on 16 August at the camp of Debbie and Eddie Brazeal in Barataria, LA.

Dan and Eddie handled the boiling

Nice looking fish Charley, but David's fish looks a lot bigger!

Debbie started the jambalaya then got some late stirring help from Bill A,

Good to see Marie Harvey at the Crab Boil. On the swing with Pat Noble.

Let the eating begin!
