

<h2 style="text-align: center; color: blue;">Ten Ways to Get the Best Out of Your Squadron</h2>
1	Take Command – Do things differently. See the squadron through member's eyes. Empower many members to make decisions. Ask “Is there a better way?” Implement processes people will enjoy carrying out. Have fun. Tell members – “It’s your Squadron.”	3	Listen Aggressively - Make it your goal to know each member.	7	Take Calculated Risks – Take a chance on a new member.
		4	Communicate Purpose and Meaning – Tell members what’s in it for them.	8	Go Beyond Standard Procedure – Push for innovation
		5	Create a Climate of Trust – you earn it by giving it.	9	Build up Your People – Praise member’s contributions.
2	Lead by Example – People follow their leader’s example.	6	Look for Results – Not Salutes – Respect has to be earned.	10	Create Unity - Treat all with dignity and respect

Part 2 of "Leading USPS into the Future"

Provided by the National Leadership Development Committee

<h2 style="text-align: center; color: blue;">Ten Ways to Get the Best Out of Your Squadron</h2>
1	Take Command – Do things differently. See the squadron through member's eyes. Empower many members to make decisions. Ask "Is there a better way?" Implement processes people will enjoy carrying out. Have fun. Tell members – "It's your Squadron."	3	Listen Aggressively - Make it your goal to know each member.	7	Take Calculated Risks – Take a chance on a new member.
		4	Communicate Purpose and Meaning – Tell members what's in it for them.	8	Go Beyond Standard Procedure – Push for innovation
		5	Create a Climate of Trust – you earn it by giving it.	9	Build up Your People – Praise member's contributions.
2	Lead by Example – People follow their leader's example.	6	Look for Results – Not Salutes – Respect has to be earned.	10	Create Unity - Treat all with dignity and respect

Part 2 of "Leading USPS into the Future"

Provided by the National Leadership Development Committee

<h2 style="text-align: center; color: blue;">Ten Ways to Get the Best Out of Your Squadron</h2>
1	Take Command – Do things differently. See the squadron through member's eyes. Empower many members to make decisions. Ask "Is there a better way?" Implement processes people will enjoy carrying out. Have fun. Tell members – "It's your Squadron."	3	Listen Aggressively - Make it your goal to know each member.	7	Take Calculated Risks – Take a chance on a new member.
		4	Communicate Purpose and Meaning – Tell members what's in it for them.	8	Go Beyond Standard Procedure – Push for innovation
		5	Create a Climate of Trust – you earn it by giving it.	9	Build up Your People – Praise member's contributions.
2	Lead by Example – People follow their leader's example.	6	Look for Results – Not Salutes – Respect has to be earned.	10	Create Unity - Treat all with dignity and respect

Part 2 of "Leading USPS into the Future"

Provided by the National Leadership Development Committee

Ten Ways to Get the Best Out of Your Squadron
1 Take Command – Do things differently. See the squadron through member's eyes. Empower many members to make decisions. Ask "Is there a better way?" Implement processes people will enjoy carrying out. Have fun. Tell members – "It's your Squadron."	3 Listen Aggressively - Make it your goal to know each member.	7 Take Calculated Risks – Take a chance on a new member.
	4 Communicate Purpose and Meaning – Tell members what's in it for them.	8 Go Beyond Standard Procedure – Push for innovation
	5 Create a Climate of Trust – you earn it by giving it.	9 Build up Your People – Praise member's contributions.
2 Lead by Example – People follow their leader's example.	6 Look for Results – Not Salutes – Respect has to be earned.	10 Create Unity - Treat all with dignity and respect

Part 2 of "Leading USPS into the Future"

Provided by the National Leadership Development Committee